Grades 2/3 and 4 Tarra Bulga Excursion - Reports by Grade 4

As we stepped onto the Suspension Bridge little droplets of mud splattered on the cuffs of our pants or shorts. I heard water flowing down a narrow stream. We saw a Mountain Ash tree atop a hill as a dry taste filled our mouths. We walked across the suspension bridge and there was a tiny leech crossing the bridge as well. We felt really peaceful as a misty air filled the sky.

By Ben H

As we stepped onto the dark damp planks of the giant suspension bridge, many people jumped and hopped on the suspension bridge. Down below was the canopy of the gully the creek slowly moved as we could only hear slight drops of the water. The top of the fern trees were very cool as you looked down. As you looked left you saw all the Mountain Ash trees as you looked right you saw all the Myrtle Beech trees. The slightly swinging suspension bridge was really cool but as we found out about the leeches we finally found one or two (disgusting.)

By Jessica

The bridge was suspended over the fern gully. The Mountain Ash was reaching for the misty sky. As the kids looked at the bridge, the leech danced. The sound of birds chirping was echoing in the air. As the children looked at the gully, they saw a creek going on its way. The bridge swayed through the air as they walked off the bridge.

“We’re Going On A Bear Hunt” Excursion Reports by Grade 1/2

On the first of June, Prep/1 & 1/2 went to the Traralgon Little Theatre to watch We're Going on a Bear Hunt. It was live on stage and when it's live on stage we get to see the actors perform their show. It was good fun watching the play and there were lots of funny bits in the play. After that we went to the playground. We did lots of things there. It was near the Traralgon outdoor pool. It was a very good day don't you think? Trust me it was fun.

On the first of June, P/1 and 1/2 went to a Bear Hunt play. It was funny and they went through the grass, mud, forest, snow storm and a cave. We went to a playground and it was awesome and we went on a bus on the way back to school.
